

Overview

This programme is especially designed to enhance knowledge of existing investors and provide theoretical and practical aspects of share trading to other interested parties having sufficient knowledge on the area of capital market.

This programme will focus on areas such as Financial Planning, Share Analysis, Portfolio Management and the securities regulation in Sri Lanka etc.

This programme suits for anyone interested in investing in the capital market or willing to enhance their knowledge on the capital market of Sri Lanka.

This is a six week programme and lectures are held weekly only on Saturdays