

Overview

The Capital Market Education and Training Division is conducting CPD Programmes to uplift the knowledge of the financial market professionals with the latest developments in the global as well as the Sri Lankan capital markets. This programme is compulsory to all Investment Advisors in the stock broking industry to renew their license annually. All the Licensed Stock brokers should attend minimum of two CPD Programmes of 04 hours each year in order to renew their license for the subsequent year